

THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION 202 SKYLAND BLVD. TUSCALOOSA, AL 35405

SHELTON INSTRUCTORS ATTEND MEETING

Mary Ann Pearson, director of nursing programs, Debbie Grimes, director of library services and Sharon Deck, chairperson of the humanities division of the college, attended the annual meeting of the Alabama Association of Community College Chairpersons in Montgomery. Ms. Deck is secretary of the statewide organization.

DECK NAMED TO STATE COMMITTEE

Sharon Deck, instructor of English for Shelton State and chairperson of the humanities division of the college, has been named to the nominating committee for Alabama Junior, Community and Technical College Association. New officers for AJCCA will be elected in Mobile at the April meeting.

AACA TO SPONSOR MEETING

The Afro American Cultural Association of Shelton State Community College will sponsor a Black History Month vesper service on Sunday, February 16, at 6:30 in the auditorium of the junior college.

Guest speaker will be Dr. Vernon Swuft, pastor of the Elizabeth Baptist Church. Charles Steele Jr., city counselor, District 1, John Embland, city counselor, District 2, Joseph N. Mallisham, county commissioner, District 4, Bryant Melton, State Representative, District 6, Mr. and Mrs. James Blackmon and Mary Ann Blackmon, Tuscaloosa Family of the year will be guests of the College.

The public is invited to attend.

MISS SHELTON STATE PAGEANT SCHEDULED

The 1986 Miss Shelton State Pageant will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday, February 15, in the auditorium of the junior college. Sixteen girls will compete for the title which will include $250, scholarship money, gifts, prizes and the opportunity to compete for Miss Alabama. Tickets are $2.00 in advance and $3.00 at the door.

SHELTON INSTRUCTORS HONORED

Shelton State instructors Dr. Lee Albritton and Luther Morrison were honored recently by the State Board of Education for their leadership in planning the professional development workshops which were held in Tuscaloosa last November. Dr. Albritton is chairman of the science division of the college and Morrison is an instructor of diesel mechanics at the technical division.

SAMPSON'S BOOK ON SALE

Dennis Sampson's book of poetry, The Double Genesis, is currently on sale in the bookstore of the college. Sampson, who teaches Literature for the college, has already received national distribution of the book. It has been reviewed in The Hudson Review and The Black Warrior Review.

PHI THETA KAPPA ATTENDS CONVENTION

Shelton State's Phi Theta chapter, Alpha Epsilon Iota, attended its state convention recently in Gulf Shores, Alabama. The members of the national junior college honorary competed against other chapters in the state in Scholar's Bowl tournament. The Shelton State chapter was elected State Secretary for the 1986-87 school year. Sandra Anderson, PTK President, was selected for the Golden Key Award, an honor bestowed upon outstanding PTK members.

Preparations are now under way for the national convention to be held in Philadelphia this spring. PTK will be involved in several fund raising activities over the next two months in order to raise money for members to attend the convention.

Officers for this year are: Sandra Anderson, President; Joe Rice, Vice President; Morgan Spiller, Vice President; Angela Kelley, Secretary; Cay Walker, Treasurer; and Mariko Seale, Historian. Faculty advisors are: Brenda Ryan, Linda Mason, Julie Bailey and Guil Kicker.

DR. LILLIE KING TO SPEAK

Dr. Lillie King, director of development for Florida A.M., will be the keynote speaker for the program honoring the winter class of the New Options program. The special program which is being held in conjunction with Black History Month will be on Thursday, February 20, at 7 p.m. in the junior college auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

UA ENSEMBLE TO PERFORM

The University of Alabama Contemporary Ensemble will perform on Monday, February 17, as part of the Monday Concert Series held at the College. The concert which will be held in the music room of the junior college beginning at 12:30 p.m. will be directed by Scott Bridges and Marvin Johnson.